There's a monster upstairs. It's living in my bedroom this week. It's under my bed.

When I get up in the morning, I have to run to my cupboard very quickly. I take out my clothes and then run to the bathroom. I put my clothes on in there. I don't want to get dressed in my bedroom. I don't want the monster to come out from under my bed and take my socks or my favourite sweater.

After school, I don't play computer games. My computer is on the desk in my bedroom. I don't want to sit there with my feet on the floor. When I'm not looking, the monster comes out.

I think it wants to eat my toes!

And I can't do my homework in my bedroom. I think the monster wants to write or draw on all the pages in my school books. I'm doing all my homework on the kitchen table this week. Mum says that's OK.

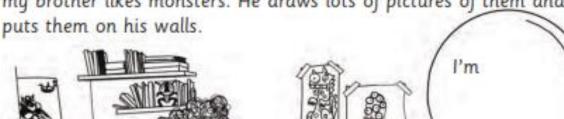

When I want to go to bed, I open the door to my bedroom and say very loudly, 'I know you're in here but this is my room! You aren't scary!' The monster listens, I think. It doesn't come out. I never see it. But it is scary. I know it's there.

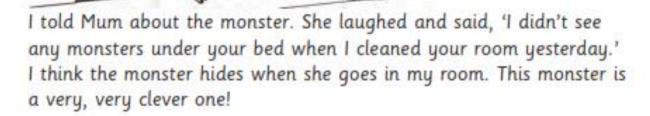

I quickly run and jump into bed and then close my eyes and count to 100. 'Counting helps you to go to sleep,' Grandma says.

When you're counting to 100, you don't think about monsters.

When I'm asleep at night, I think the monster climbs quietly out of my window. I think it finds things to eat in our garden. I know it comes back again before morning. I told my brother about the monster. He laughed and said, 'Don't be silly, Vicky! There are no monsters under your bed, but there's a very big one under mine. There's one in my cupboard too.' I think my brother likes monsters. He draws lots of pictures of them and

I told Dad about the monster. He said, 'Don't worry! I'm not afraid of monsters. We can find it and tell it to go away.' But Dad didn't come and help me when I asked him to. He wanted to watch a film on television with Uncle Bill. I think Dad IS scared of monsters. I can understand that.

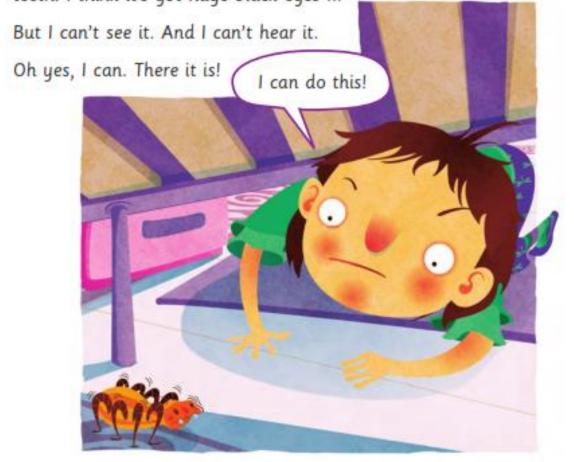

It's Saturday today. My brother and my parents don't want to help me, but I don't want to live with this scary monster for another week. I want to play computer games in my bedroom again.

I'm going upstairs now. I want to find the monster and tell it to go away. It can go and live with Mrs Gray. She lives in the house next to ours. My brother and I don't like her!

So, I'm looking under my bed ... I know there's a monster here.

I think it's got lots of legs and a big round stomach and big scary teeth. I think it's got huge black eyes ...

Slowly ... quietly ... slowly ... quietly ... Got you!!!

There's a monster under my bed!

Who's talking about this story?

Tick the right box.

I read this story at home yesterday. It's about a big monster that steals some socks from a girl and then hides them under her bed. I laughed at the end.

This story is about a girl and a spider that she finds under her bed. It's funny because she thinks it's a monster. I liked the picture of her room at night.

"Look. Can you see a ghost?" she asks.

"Do you see?" Mia says. "No ghosts, Rick! Let's go in and look at the rooms." "No," Rick answers. "Let's go home, please, Mia!"

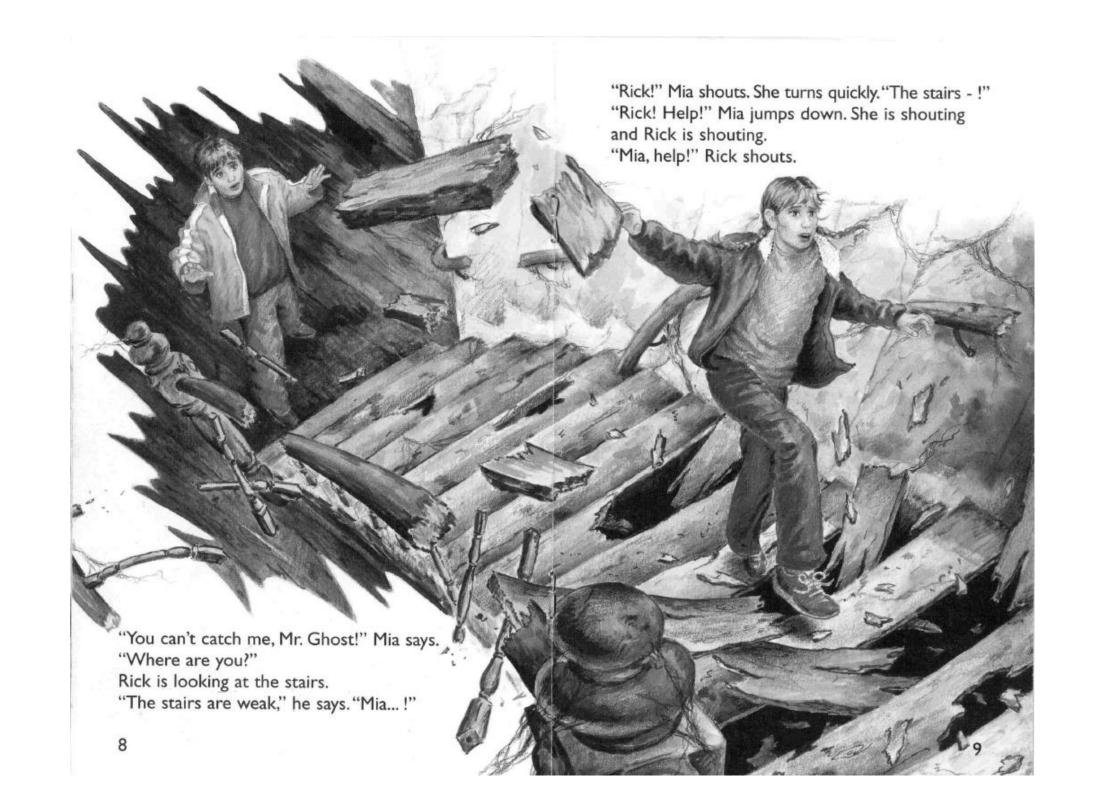

Mia is not listening. She goes in.
"Come on," she says. "Let's go find the ghost!"
She smiles at Rick.
Rick is not smiling.

"I don't like this," he says.
"What's the matter?" Mia asks. "Ghost! Ghost!" she shouts. "Where are you!"

"Let's look in the rooms up upstairs," Mia says. "Come on, Rick!" She starts to go up the stairs. "Mia, come back," Rick says.

Rick's body is under the stairs. His eyes are shut. Mia jumps down to get him from under the stairs. "Help!" she says. "I can't -!"

But ... some strong hands help Mia! She looks up and down. Who is helping her? "Who is it?" she asks. "Who - is helping me?"

Rick opens his eyes. "What - ?" he starts to say. "Rick! Rick! Can you see me?" Mia asks. "Yes," Rick says. "I can see you, Mia."

"Let's go home," Mia says.

She looks up, but she does not say, "Who's there?"

She helps Rick to stand up. He walks slowly.

"I don't like that house," Rick says.

He smiles. "But no, Mia. There are no ghosts."
"No," Mia says, "there aren't."

She is not smiling.

Happier - Marshmello & Bastille

Lately, I've been, I've been thinking/dreaming

I want you to be happier, I want you to be happier

When the morning/night comes

When we see what we've become

In the cold light of day, we're a flame in the wind

Not the fire that we've begun

Every argument, every word we can't take back

'Cause with all that has happened

I think that we both know the way that this story

ends/starts

[Chorus]

Then only for a minute/second

I want to change my mind

'Cause this just don't feel right/wrong to me

I wanna raise your spirits

I want to see you smile/cry but

Know that means I'll have to leave

Know that means I'll have to leave

When the afternoon/evening falls

And I'm left there with my thoughts

And the image of you being with someone else

Well, it's eating me up inside

But we ran our course, we pretended we're okay

Now if we jump together/alone, at least we can swim

Far away from the wreck we made

[Chorus]

So I'll go, I'll go

I will go, go, go (x2)

Lately, I've been, I've been thinking

I want you to be happier, I want you to be happier

Even though I might not like this

I think that you'll be happier. I want you to be
